Infringement by Big Rob's Bail Bond Agency LLC ("BRBB")

we may avoid further controversy or litigation. Otherwise, we will be forced to assume that your use violated the law.

Damages

Copyright law provides several different elements of compensation to Sisk when a work is infringed or altered. Section 504 permits Sisk to recover actual damages plus "any additional profits of the infringer that are attributable to the infringement and are not taken into account in computing the actual damages," or statutory damages of up to $150,000 per work infringed if the registration predated the infringement. Sisk can present both damages theories to the jury and select the higher award any time prior to entry of judgment.

Academic studies have demonstrated that the use of good quality photographs more effectively market and advertise products and drive sales. Sisk's photographs are of the highest quality. Sisk's photographs are also scarce since he is one of the only sources of such quality photographs.

Sisk's damages are not limited to what he would have agreed to license the Work for prior to the infringement. Rather, Sisk's actual damages will be measured by the fair market value of the photograph considering BRBB's use to sell and promote its business. Sisk's actual damages must be measured in light of BRBB's use of Sisk's high quality and unique Work.

This is consistent with federal courts' approach to broadly construing the term "actual damages" to favor victims of infringement. See, e.g., Davis v. Gap, Inc., 246 F.3d 152, 164 (2d Cir. 2001). The fair market value approach for calculating damages is an accepted approach to valuing the defendants' uses of photographs. See Leonard v. Stemtech Int'l, Inc., Nos. 15-3198, 15-3247, 2016 U.S. App. LEXIS 15565 (3d Cir. Aug. 24, 2016). In addition, Sisk can offer evidence of the actual cost to take the photograph infringed on a time and materials basis.

Section 504 of the Copyright Act permits Sisk to recover actual damages plus "any additional profits of the infringer that are attributable to the infringement and are not taken into account in computing the actual damages." Therefore, Sisk will also be entitled to BRBB's profits from the infringement, based upon the revenue BRBB earned in connection with the use of Sisk's Work.

Alternatively, Sisk could seek statutory damages for infringement in an amount of up to $30,000 per work infringed if the registration predated the infringement. There is also the possibility that a judge or jury could determine that BRBB's infringement was willful. If BRBB's infringement was shown to be willful, the statutory damage award would increase to an amount up to $150,000 per work infringed.

There is also the issue of the removal of Sisk's copyright management information. 17 USC 1203(c)(3)(B) permits Sisk to recover statutory damages of not less than $2,500 or more than $25,000 per violation of the prohibition against alteration or removal of copyright management information contained in Section 1202. Based upon BRBB's removal of Sisk's CMI, Sisk will seek the maximum statutory damages of $25,000 per photograph against BRBB for this violation.

1. the full nature and extent of the use of our client's Work, in any and all formats;
